

Mike Barclay to step down as Chief Executive of Sentosa Development Corporation

The Ministry of Trade and Industry (MTI) today announced that Mr Mike Barclay, Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Sentosa Development Corporation (SDC), will be returning to the private sector after completing his 7-year tenure at SDC on 30 September 2015. The new CEO will be announced in due course. In the interim, Mr Low Tien Sio, Deputy CEO of SDC, will be the Acting CEO from 1 October 2015.

2 Mr Mike Barclay joined SDC as the CEO in 2008, and was re-appointed for another two year-term in 2013. Under his stewardship, SDC developed a strategic business framework that charted the direction for Sentosa to be a leading leisure destination with a sustainable value proposition.

3 His leadership was firmly anchored on people development and service excellence. During his tenure, Mr Barclay built a warm, hospitable and collaborative organisational culture, with passionate staff across all levels committed to delivering Sentosa's brand promise as an attractive leisure destination for both local and foreign guests. He also established strong relationships with key stakeholders and built successful long-term strategic partnerships for Sentosa.

4 The Ministry of Trade and Industry (MTI) extends its appreciation to Mr Barclay for his contributions. Mrs Ow Foong Pheng, Permanent Secretary for MTI, said, "Under Mike's leadership, Sentosa has developed new and exciting attractions and offerings which have positioned the island resort as a leading leisure destination for locals and tourists alike. I thank Mike for his years of service and wish him all the best in his future endeavours."
